LEASE FOR HOTEL

The Erckert Hotel Changes Hands and Will Be Remodeled and Renovated

Hardy M., Burt yesterday closed a lease for the Erckert hotel, formerly the Birmingham, for a long term of years. Mr. Burt will immediately remodel and refurnish the place and will make it into one of the most modern hostelries of the state.

He will spend $10,000 on remodeling and renovating the outside and the inside of the place, and in addition the entire hote is to be refurnished with handsome furniture and carpets. The work will begin The name of the new hostelry is to be business yesterday. Mr. Burt, who was formerly one of the proprietors and also manager of the Florence hotel, has secured practically the entire force whic worked for him at the Florence for the new Burt hotel. Mrs. Grimes, who is nov housekeeper at one of the large hotel of Chicago, formerly with the Florence has been wired for, and is now on he way. The same is true with most of the office force of the old Flodence, the majority of them having wired Mr. Bur that they would be on hand next week. Mr. Burt is one of the best known hote men of the state. He was largely in men of the state. He was largely in-strumental in organizing the Alabama Hotel Men's association, and has played a prominent part in the work of tha organization. Most of the bills which were passed by the last legislature for the benefit of the hotels of the state are accredited to the efforts of Mr. Burt, who was chairman of the legislative commit-tee of the hotel men's association.

Mr. Burt was for six years manage, of the Florence hotel, one of the most popular hostelries of the state. He is well known throughout Alabama and it is expected that the new hotel will prove exceptionally popular. In discussing the new venture yesterday, Mr. Burt stated that it would be conducted on high-class lines and that the prices would be such as to attract popular favor. BOYS OF BATTERY B ARE WELL CARED FOR SAYS LIEUT. PALMER

Signed Statement by Members of Outfit States They Appreciate Being Given Furlough Arrangements have been made at Battery B headquarters for feeding and caring for the men who live out of the city and were furloughed last Thursday afternoon. According to Thomas W. Palmer, Jr., second lieutenant of Battery B, the men are being well cared for, and statements of the several men, appearing in yesterday morning's Age-Herald, were not founded on facts. Several members of the battery reported conditions of the men to a reporter of this paper and their statements were backed by half a dozen others. However, this was denied yesterday by Lieutenant heat, hot and cold water, snades and gas range furnished. On car line and bus line.

TO ASSIST OFFICERS IN FORMING TROOP Adjutant General G. J. Hubbard yesterday instructed Capt. J. D. Carlisle, a retired officer of the militia, to assist in the recruiting of the cavalry troop for Birmingham. This action was taken under the authority of the recent army bill which give the right to the adjutant general to call back into the service temporarily officers who had retired. Captain Carslisle will work with Ser-geants Gresham and Thach in work of recruiting the cavalry troop. It was announced yesterday that Matt Y. Murphy, who is to be captain of the local troop, will arrive in Birmingham Mon-

737 First National bank building. Nu-merous applications were received by the recruiting officers yesterday and in addition many men came to inquire regarding the situation. It was announced that men enlisting in the cavalry would be spared the trouble which had confronted the other organizations of the National Guard at the mobilization camp.
